

Lively Hell!

Instructive Stories from the teachings of Srla Bhaktisiddhanta Sarasvati Thakur

A pious God-conscious brahmana
once advised a drunkard,

The holy scriptures say that one
who takes wine goes
to hell.

But Suren Babu
also takes wine!

He will also go to hell.

Barun Babu also takes wine!

He will also
go to hell.

Arun Babu also
takes wine!

He will also
go to hell.

What else
must one do to
go to hell?

Telling lies,
stealing, cheating others,
practising illicit sex all takes
one to hell.

Then what will be the fate of Brahmini the prostitute?

Hell!

Everyone who is a prostitute must go to hell?

Yes.

And those who visit
a prostitute's house, where will they go?

Also to hell.

Oh, then there must be a hellish pandemonium in hell!
If some men flock to hell, then it must be great fun!

PURPORT

Many people in this material world take into their heads that there should be nothing to worry if many people commit heinous crimes in profusion. In fact, the fallen souls who never care for sincere devotional service to the Lord are in majority on this planet. Accordingly, the brute majority may remain complacent without practising devotional service to the Lord and may come to the conclusion that they will undergo the same fate as other atheists “so what’s the use of approaching a few saintly persons to get to hear good sermons! Better to go by the majority.”

Thus many people become averse to devotional service to the Lord. This simply reflects the mode of passion.
