

The sacred thread ceremony of Little Nimai

A few years after his birth, it was time for Nimai to accept the sacred Brahmin thread.

On the occasion of Nimai's thread ceremony, Jagannath Mishra invited his friends, who arrived in great delight and took up different duties to assist him.

The brahmanas chanted Vedic mantras and hymns.

Sachidevi's house flooded with unlimited joy.

The day and time of the ceremony were very auspicious.
All the planets were in favourable position.

The sacred thread adorning the beautiful form of the Lord was an enchanting sight, just like Lord Anantashesha, who assumed a thread form to circle the body of his beloved Lord.

The residents of Navadvipa saw a wonderful spiritual aura emanating from the Lord.

The Lord immediately appeared as Vamanadev, to the unbounded joy of the onlookers.

With a stick in his hand and a cloth bag hanging from his shoulder, Lord Gaurasundara went begging for alms, from the residents of Navadvipa.

Everyone placed alms in Nimai's bag according to their capacity.

Child Nimai enacted the transcendental pastime of Lord Vamanadev for the redemption of all conditioned souls.
