Thir prabhu , Why are you so disturbed?

Prabhu I
cannot come
for yatra this year...

My boss is not sanctioning the leave which I am
supposed to get...

Prabhu but as far as I know you had maintained good relation with your boss..

Then how come
all of a sudden your boss is behaving in
such a way?

Actually I forgot
to tell you prabhu I

Job and this is my
new boss ...

A man in an orange polo shirt and glasses is sitting on a patterned mat on the floor, looking down with a surprised expression. He has his hands on his hips. A second man, wearing a white shirt, is kneeling in front of him, looking up at him. A speech bubble above the man in orange contains the text "What !!!".

What !!!

You have changed
your job and you
didn't even think
about informing me...

you create problems acting independently and then when you are in problem you come to me for solution . Why didn't you ask me before deciding to change your job ?

Many times a devotee may feel that it is not necessary to consult his authorities who are guiding him about aspects like job which appears to be materialistic activity. But these activities which appear to be materialistic will have great impact on our Bhakti if not taken proper care ...

Therefore it is always advisable and proper to take guidance from authorities what ever may be the situation. May it be a job or dealing with materialistic friends etc...

There is no activity in spritual life that can be done without being guided by our authorities. If it is not followed then there is every chance of even ourselves facing the same situation like Bhakt Thir prabhu...
